

Vale
Agnes Jean Knightly

26th August 1949 - 1st June 2015

A burial service in Loving Memory of "Nancy", Agnes Jean Knightly was held at the Kingston Cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, 10th June 2015.

Unfortunately, I had a previous appointment and could not attend, but the wording of the Service Sheet and the many expressions of Thanks will give readers some idea of how popular Nancy was in the community.

The Order of Service was printed in both Maori and English and the song "Easy" was sung by Norfolk Island's favourite Maori singer - Dennis Marsh.

The welcome and Opening Prayer was given by Manuka Henare who read Psalm 50:1-4. This was followed by the Eulogy from Lee Henare and Manuka Henare.

An Open floor to all who wished to speak of their association with Nancy with the final speakers being Troy Knightly (Beloved Son) and Lee Michie (Beloved Daughter).

The Committal and the saying of The Lord's Prayer in Maori and English then followed with Psalm 23 - "The Lords is my shepherd, I shall not want" delivered by Manuka Henare. The singing of the Pitcairn Anthem led by Trent Christian and the Final Farewell given by Manuka Henare and Lee Henare brought the service to a close.

Thank You

The Knightly family would like to send out their deepest thanks to the community for their loving care and friendship for our beloved Angel Nancy Knightly.

Special thanks go to Mia and Sonny for their tireless work in helping Nancy on a daily basis.

To Helen, Gary and family, thank you so much we will never forget.

To Sheryl for your special Nursing care, given willingly and lovingly.

To Daniel and Rachael you were so unconditional with your love and support.

To the staff of the RSL. Thank you.

To her work mates at the Norfolk Island Hospital always available when Nancy needed you.

To the great and wonderful people of Norfolk Island, your hospitality, kindness and love of Nancy was abundantly clear.

To you all, thank you, thank you, thank you so much, we send you back love and kisses a hundred fold.

To the staff at Rumours, you were all so awesome and again unconditional in your love for Nancy.

From Steve, Brad, Leanne, Troy, Charlene, Tate. Sisters Patsy, Milly, Gloria, Penny, Louise, Karen and Sister Lee and our beloved sole brother Manuka and Honourable brother-in-law Colin from all of our extended families. Thank you always.

Arohanui.
