Norfolk Island Tourism

Manager – Visitor Experiences

The Norfolk Island Visitor Information Centre and the associated delivery of destination interpretive services are undergoing substantial change and improvement. To lead this initiative, applications are sought for the role of Manager – Visitor Experiences.

The Manager – Visitor Experiences is a key member of the Norfolk Island Tourism management team responsible for the provision of quality visitor services on Norfolk Island and linking the provision of those services with other strategic activities of the Bureau including marketing and destination development.

The role is responsible for day to day management of the Visitor Information Centre and for developing systems and procedures to ensure high quality:

- information provision
- meet and greet services
- staff development; and
- reservations for tours and accommodation.

The ideal person will have a grounding in the culture of Norfolk Island, a strong ethos of service excellence, knowledge of reservations systems and management experience gained in a diverse tourism or hospitality background, preferably on and off Norfolk Island.

This position is based on Norfolk Island and comes with an attractive salary. For a copy of the position description please email twatson@nigtb.gov.nf in the first instance or call Terry Watson, General Manager Norfolk Island Tourism on 23310 or 53999
